The Global Forum for National SDG Advisory Bodies

The Global Forum for National SDG Advisory Bodies

An institutionalized evidence-based multi-stakeholder advisory body such as the Global Forum will add value to its members and thereby strengthen their efforts to accelerate SDG implementation nationally and regionally. By strengthening and connecting existing bodies, and supporting the emergence of new bodies, the Forum's founders pledge to foster co-creation and sharing of issue-based collective knowledge between these bodies, identify common grounds, and support context-sensitive learning fo... MULTISTAKEHOLDER FORUM

KNOWLEDGE-SHARING: expertise, good practices, lessons learned, identifying common grounds, pathways and entry points for SDG delivery

CAPACITY BUILDING to learn about policy cycles and national SDG Councils for impactful sustainable development policy-making

COOPERATION: issue-based collective knowledge

CONTEXT-SENSITIVE LEARNING: no one size fits all

PARTNERSHIPS: new forms of alliances to identify processes of spillover effects, externalities, or other leverages to remedy impacts from within the country and to the partner countries

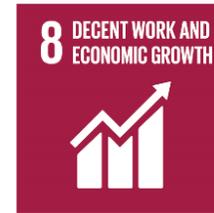

NEW FORM OF MULTILATERALISM

Sharing economic benefits: A productive global economy built around full and decent employment at livable wages, for all countries

Advancing human well-being and leaving no one behind: eliminating deprivations and building resilience across multiple dimensions through universal provision of and access to quality basic services; ensuring equal access to opportunities, ending legal and social discrimination and invest in building human capabilities empowering people to shape their lives and bring about collective change.

Protecting the planet and preserving the environment: urgent need to achieve the necessary transformations for conserving, restoring and sustainably using natural resources, while simultaneously achieving the Sustainable Development Goals.
